

CANNOT CASH LEGACY

Trade "Sight Unseen" with Lindauer Disappoints.

SCHMIDT STANDS TO LOSE $60

Agrees to Scientifically Inter-Pittsburg Suicide in Return for Insurance Papers That Bring No Return—Brewers Not After Banquet, but Want to Collect a Debt.

Trouble of enigmatic proportions is looming up on the horizon to disturb the serenity of the Washington Columbia Kranken-Unterstützungsverein.

Mike Schmidt, worthy president of that organization, seems to have secured a legacy in the guise of a bequest from the hands of a late member, Julius Lindauer, who committed suicide in Pittsburg, Pa., last Wednesday.

Julius, with the aid of several quarts of dream producer, imagined that he had been left to several thousand dollars, and this, with his insurance papers, he would to Herr Schmidt on the condition that when he died Schmidt was to have his body cremated and the remains buried beside those of his wife in Baltimore.

As soon as Mike learned that his benefactor had died, he immediately telegraphed to an uncle, a doctor in Pittsburg, to have the body cremated, and to hold the ashes until he could reach that city and bring them home for burial.

Yesterday Schmidt arrived from the "Smoky City."

Wealth All a Dream.

He has discovered that Julius was only wealthy in his dreams, and by means of signing the agreement to bury him he is more than $60 out of pocket, and Lindauer not yet properly laid away.

Lindauer's bequest, it appears, resulted in the passing out of more money than the one handed to Herr Schmidt.

In one of the local papers yesterday morning it was said that Lindauer had made a similar bequest to the Washington branch of the Brewery Workers' "Helping" Union, and that the members of that organization had to meet yesterday morning to discuss the best way to spend the money.

The story stated that by the conditions of his will, he did not desire any one should shed tears on account of his death. He wanted all of his friends to have a good time. Two thousand dollars were to be spent for a grand feast.

The members of the union were to assemble in their hall and indulge in every thing good to eat, not forgetting the liquor addition. This feast was to continue until the entire amount was expended.

Instead of meeting to arrange for the spending of the money, the union, yesterday morning, discussed the best plan to adopt to collect the money owed them by Lindauer.

Secretary Karl Adams says he does not know anything of the alleged bequest to the union by its late member.

DOUBTS UTE INDIAN STORY.

Army Officer Says Many Troops Are Not Needed to Quell Them.

"I am rather inclined to question the accuracy of the press dispatch stating that 2,000 troops, with rapid-fire guns, are moving upon the Ute Indians in Southern Montana," said a well-known army officer at the Capitol House last night.

"In the first place, as Maj. McLaughlin pointed out when he returned from Wyoming a week ago, there are less than 300 Indians in the entire bunch, including bucks, squaws and children. It would be nothing less than slaughter—extermination, in fact, unworthy of our army."

"Two hundred of our soldiers would be sufficient to make such a demonstration as would induce the Indians to abandon their design of traveling farther northward. The claim that they are trying to incite the Cheyennes to rise with them against the whites is, in my opinion, fiction."

"Maj. McLaughlin said he believed the advent of old warriors would be sufficient to start the Utes on the back-track toward their reservation in Utah, and I guess he is right."

ITALIAN HIS OWN JAILER.

Convicted Murderer Imprisons Himself and Serves Eight Years.

Rome, Oct. 28.—A wealthy landowner by the name of Raimondo Pace was sentenced in default of $100,000 to ten years' imprisonment for murdering his servant. Pace could not be traced, and it was supposed he had emigrated. The police, a few days ago, heard a rumor that he was hiding in his own house at Foglia. They raided the place and found Pace safely in a cell he had built in the basement of his home, where a servant had fed him with bread and water once daily.

The prisoner declared, and the servant confirmed the statement, that he had not left the cell for eight years. He intended to complete the ten years' imprisonment imposed on him, and then to petition the King to pardon him and then to travel the world.

"De car? Yes, dun bu'n de car, too, sir, all 'cept one wheel, sir."

STRIKE IN GOAT ALLEY.

Peacemaker Stabbed by Party to Argument on Craps Shooting.

It was demonstrated yesterday that Goat Alley northwest, is not a happy place for anyone to attempt to pour oil on troubled waters. Because he tried to make peace between Oscar Taper, colored, twenty-five years old, who lives at 613 Goat Alley northwest and Ennis, alias "Mule" Dawson, colored, the same age, Milton Tyler, colored, twenty-one years old, of 623 L street northwest, is in a precarious condition at the Homeopathic Hospital, suffering from a deep stab wound in the abdomen, alleged to have been inflicted by Dawson who is still at large.

It seems that Taper and Dawson became involved in a heated argument about noon yesterday concerning some features of a craps game. Each man became more and more intent upon proving his side of the case until they finally began to fight. According to the police report, Taper attempted to separate the combatants and it is alleged was stabbed by Dawson, who immediately made his escape. Tyler walked to the Homeopathic Hospital, a distance of about five blocks.
